The New Way for Shaving Comfort

Quickly Shaves Every Kind of Beard Close and Clean

SUNBEAM SHAVEMASTER

Just right for men who have been intending to buy an electric dry-shaver when the right one came along... men who have used a dry-shaver and want a better one... that great group of people who plan to give a dry-shaver as a gift and want to give one that really shaves.

No Skill Required

No weeks of patient practice. Men like the first shave it gives them. Pass the smooth, round shaving head over your face—forward, backward, sideways—or in circles. No skin can enter—not a whisker escapes. Cannot nick or cut the face.

High-Grade Steel Comb. Half-circle in shape, fits any contour of the face comfortably. Surface of comb, save for the clipper openings at either end, is a network of fine, beard-size holes. Whiskers enter the holes in comb and are literally whisked away by the high-speed cutter.

Self-Honing Cutter "floats" in the oscillating cutter-holder. Centrifugal force presses cutting edge tight against inside of comb.

Powerful Motor. Self-starting, brush-type Universal Motor with convenient on-and-off switch. All beards look alike to the steady, man-size power of this motor.

Works Two Ways—Shaves and Clips. The ONLY electric shaver with a patented head made exclusively to shave beards close and clean—and also having a clipper in it for clipping longer hairs which cling to the neck.

Easy to Keep Clean. Blow through slots in base of comb after each shave to remove hairs. For more thorough cleaning, comb can be easily removed. Convenient brush is provided to clean corners of cutter-holder when comb is removed.

Heavy Bakelite case, with nickel-plated, perforated front plate. Length 4 1/4 inches.

Complete with rubber covered cord with rubber attachment plug cap.

Operates on 110 or 120 volts, AC or DC current.

or short hairs on any part of the face. The wide tapering entrance between the 70 Magic Microtines let all hairs in.

ELECTRIC DRY SHAVERS

INGERSOLL

A quality electric razor that looks, shaves and is good. It is self-honing and self-sharpening and will give quick, clean, close shaves.

The dry shaver head—designed for smooth action on the skin, ease of cleaning, long life, and simplicity. Selected steel, accurately heat-treated, is used for the outer shell, and cutter bar. Head is easy to remove and replace. The inner cutter runs on large ball bearings, eliminating wear at the vulnerable point.

The motor—unlike other razor motors, the Ingersoll motor (not a vibrator) is mounted on a metal chassis, and is assembled as a complete motor before being placed in its case. Designed to provide plenty of power and ease of starting at all times with efficient operation and ample power output assured. The starting wheel is designed so that it cannot "burn" the fingers when stopping or starting the motor.

The Ingersoll motor is approved by the National Board of Fire Underwriters as having no fire or electrical hazards. The motor is rated at only eight watts, and each razor is individually tested before leaving the factory. No oiling whatsoever is required.

Attractively designed composition case with polished nickel-plated head. Complete with ultra flexible rubber covered cord and moulded rubber plug. Size 5x2x1½ inches.

Operates on 110-120 volts A. C. or D. C. current.

KEEN KUTTER "Hammer Forged" Quality Cutlery

"HAMMER FORGED"

Each bar of steel is heated in the forge, and then hammered into the proper thickness and shape for a knife. This gives that extra strength and edge-holding quality for which these "Hammer Forged" knives are justly famous. They are guaranteed both as to material and workmanship, recommended for professional, farm and home use.

How They Are Made

Illustrated below is a bar of steel, partly forged.

From single bars of high-grade crucible cutlery steel like this, the original Hammer Forged blades are forged.

They are shaped, tempered, and the lower portion of the blade is hand ground, under water, to a keen cutting edge.

The upper portion of the blade is left just as it comes from the forging operation. Cutting edge is polished. Black walnut handles with embossed and gold-filled lettering, secured to the tang with three large brass saw rivets.

TUDOR PLATE SILVERWARE

BY ONEIDA COMMUNITY SILVERSMITHS

- Quality in medium priced Silverware, made by the same designers, the same craftsmen, the same scientific method of plating as the famous Community Plate.
- Buy Tudor Plate with confidence—you know its makers, its value, its reputation for service and long wear.
- Each piece sturdily constructed, heavily plated, balanced in shape and design . . . easy to keep shining in tarnish-proof chests approved by Good Housekeeping.

Every Set Available in These Modern Tudor Patterns

Royal York—The most ornamental Tudor Pattern—the rich Royal York that will add a note of regal distinction to your table. Note the detailed carving.

Elaine—The plain center panel is done in the modern style with just a touch of the ornamental in the graceful end decoration on either side.

Madelon—A charming ultra-feminine design that is semi-ornamental, but modern in the crisp carving of the floral border.

June—A modernized Early American pattern of those who prefer simple designs. Round-end handles . . . Mirror bright patine.

Wear-Proofed Guarantee

The makers of Tudor Plate guarantee that the principal spoons and forks have been wear-proofed by reinforcing the entire "area of wear" with an extra layer of solid silver, making the silver at this point 3 times the thickness of the overall plate. Knives are heavily plated over all.

If any piece of Tudor Plate fails to give satisfactory family use, it will be replaced.

TUDOR PLATE SILVERWARE

with the Free Trousseau Chest

Economical! Beautiful!

Just think of the value you get for your money in any of these silver-plated services, complete with this modern chest. Order the size set you want in one of the choice patterns illustrated on the introductory page of the Tudor Plate section.

The knives have streamline hollow handles and mirror finish stainless steel blades.

The Trousseau Chest

Approved by Good Housekeeping Institute

A solid wood chest with rich dark walnut finish; styled for permanent use in the home, and an extraordinary value with a set as small as 26 pieces; on display, the red interior provides a radiant background for the gleaming silverware.
